Thank you for your prayers and financial support! My trip to Nigeria with my sister Pauline in August and September was a wonderful experience. You prayed and God blessed. Thank you!

Besides giving us an award for the language work our parents did, Prof. Friday Ikani presented Pauline and me with traditional Igala attire which we wore during the ceremony. A great honor!

Achenyo and Salem's wedding was a big, joyous celebration! Please pray for the new couple as they follow Christ together. Salem is working with us on the curriculum, providing vital knowledge of Igala grammar.

Association for the Promotion of Igala Language, Literature, and Culture. Thank you for praying about my speech at the conference in September. The Lord did help me say what was on my heart. I also met more individuals who are working to promote the language, literacy, and culture of the Igala people. It was a good event.

For fluency and comprehension in reading the Igala Bible,

Igala Language Project

Working with Crystal for two weeks on the curriculum, we made an outline and began filling it in with Bible stories, songs, fables, non-fiction, and more with exercises for each section. Here we are in the office trying to connect with the internet!
