

The Billy-Goat Rider
(character from an Igala fable)

Igala Language Project Snippet December 2015

Brought to you by Esther Nordman and Partners in Joy, Inc.

PO Box 3761

Pueblo, CO 81005

See our website at partners-in-joy.org

I hope you had a very merry Christmas!

What is Christmas like in Igala land?

- Cool weather and lots of dust (instead of snow)
- Visiting friends and sharing meals
- Sending gifts of food to others
- Special church services
- New clothes for the whole family or group of friends

Quite different from how we celebrate in the USA, isn't it? But the Christmas story is the same! Emmanuel, the Savior is born! We at the Igala Language Project are working to make that story easier to read in the mother-tongue of the Igala people. Thank you for your prayers and support!

For fluency and comprehension in reading the Igala Bible,

Esther Nordman