Romans :13 NIV

Happy New Year! You, our faithful supporters in prayer and finances, are partners indeed! Thank you for what you are accomplishing with us by God's grace. God remembers every prayer and every sacrifice you've made. Some of the results:

- Late last year a friend purchased and delivered two used school buses, one for the Home in Lokoja and the other for the Home in Otutulu. Thank God with us, and please pray for safety as we transport our children to and from school.
- During the Christmas season, many people used our website to buy groceries for the orphanage Christmas celebrations. What wonderful gift-giving at Christmas!
- Some large gifts came in early this month, some for tuition, some for painting the medical center in Lokoja, and some to be used as needed. Praise the Lord!
- The girl with the terrible growth in her eye socket has had surgery. Please keep praying for successful treatment, and for this girl and her family to see and know the love of Jesus Christ.

Air is hazy with the dust of harmattan, which also blocks the intense sunshine and brings cooler temperatures.
