

Matthew 21 21-22

I assure you that, if you have faith and do not hesitate, you will be able to say to this mountain: "Get out of there and throw yourself into the sea!" and that will be done. If you believe, you will receive everything you ask for in prayer.

Ministerial decisions

A few months ago, we started the Theological Foundations course in the indigenous villages. Early this month we spoke with our student Guiselle, who is a daughter of an indigenous Boruca pastor. She is a teacher, so we proposed that she teach in our program in the other ethnic groups where we are going to be teaching. She is very excited to participate in the ministry in an ethnic group other than her own. Let us pray for Guiselle that the Lord will continue to provide funds so that she can continue to work for a long time, and for wisdom.

The Lord Himself will march before you and be with you; He will never leave you or abandon you. Don't be afraid or discouraged. Deuteronomy 31:8

Gratitude

We are very grateful to God and you brothers, for participating through your prayers in the great task of expanding the gospel within the indigenous communities in Costa Rica.

Let's pray for Yorlenny

This month after some discomfort in her abdomen, Yorlenny visited the doctor where tests revealed a mass on her right ovary. Thank God the test results show that it is benign, but she must have surgery soon to remove the mass.

We ask that the Lord take control with the doctors and nurses who will perform the surgery.

Family

Andy is finishing high school, and we pray that his exams will go well and he can conclude the school year well.

Our daughter Stephanie is starting a new process as she needs support from a psychologist. God opened the door for her to participate in a support group. Also, God is using her job for personal growth. Let us pray that the Lord will use everything for her wellbeing.
