Proverbs 15:30

*The light of the eyes gladdens the heart,
{and} the good news strengthens the bones.*

Theological Foundations Course

How special to be able to inform you that beginning the first month of the year, we have started our courses with great strength, always seeing the faithfulness of God. Today we want to bring you up to date on our work. We have 13 students of different ages in the trainings: theological foundations, training for Sunday School teachers, and baking.

The students started with great enthusiasm and expectation of what they would learn in the different topics that we taught them. There was a very pleasant atmosphere and a lot of companionship between them, supporting each other when they did not understand something.

Guiselle and Valeria who recently joined the teaching team, are leading the Sunday School workshop. We thank God for each member of the team.
